

San Francisco Youth Theatre seeks Assistant Teachers!

San Francisco Youth Theatre is a community non-profit theater organization dedicated to transforming youth and community through the performing arts. We serve youth ages 3-24, offering skill-building classes and performance ensembles for elementary, middle and high school students, along with a professional touring ensemble. We are located in San Francisco's Mission District and are based at Red Poppy Art House and Brava Theater. Our work includes on-site program and partnerships with SFUSD schools and other community-based organizations.

Founded in 2014, SFYT is rapidly expanding. We are seeking rising teaching artists who want to experience working in the arts classroom with master teaching artist mentors. Are you interested in joining a team of dedicated theatre professionals who believe in youth development through the power of theatre? Join us!

Primary Duties and Responsibilities for Assistant Teaching Artists may include:

- Help teacher with classroom set-up and clean up
- Fully participate in all classroom activities
- Plan curriculum with master Teaching Artist
- Provide extra support for children having challenges in class
- Attend professional development sessions
- Document classroom activities with photo and video
- Publicity and Social Media: Post on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram

Ideal qualifications may include:

- Strong interest in working with youth
- High School Graduate
- Arts experience in
 - Theatre
 - Dance
 - Visual Art
 - Photography
 - Music- Instrumental and Vocal
 - Spoken Word
- Spanish speaker or Chinese speaker a plus

This is an independent contractor position from 4-10 hours of teaching/week. Pay commensurate with experience. Additional administration hours available if interested.

For more information, please send resume and cover letter to SFYT Executive Director Emily Klion:
Emily.klion@sfyouththeatre.org